

Workshop on Statistical Methods for Large Complex Data

November 10-12, 2014

Venue: D509 Institute of Natural Sciences, University of Tsukuba, Japan

Workshop Homepage: <http://www.math.tsukuba.ac.jp/~aoshima-lab/symposium.html>

Organizers:

Makoto Aoshima (University of Tsukuba)
Mika Sato-Ilic (University of Tsukuba)
Kazuyoshi Yata (University of Tsukuba)
Ming-Yen Cheng (National Taiwan University)

Supported by

Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (B) 22300094

“Theories and Methodologies for High-Dimensional Data Analysis”

(Principal Investigator: Makoto Aoshima)

Grant-in-Aid for Challenging Exploratory Research 26540010

“Statistics for Big Data: Development of Theories and Tackling the 3Vs”

(Principal Investigator: Makoto Aoshima)

Invited Speakers:

Ming-Yen Cheng (National Taiwan University)
Ching-Kang Ing (Academia Sinica)
Mei-Hui Guo (National Sun Yat-sen University)

Speakers and Discussion Leaders:

Keisuke Fukui	(Hiroshima University)	Tosei Hatori	(University of Tsukuba)
Kei Hirose	(Osaka University)	Masashi Hyodo	(Tokyo University of Science)
Makoto Inokuchi	(Hiroshima University)	Kengo Kato	(University of Tokyo)
Liang-Ching Lin	(National Sun Yat-sen University)
Hidetoshi Matsui	(Kyushu University)	Tomoyuki Nakagawa	(Hiroshima University)
Takahiro Nishiyama	(Senshu University)	Yoichi Nishiyama	(Institute of Statistical Mathematics)
Shuichi Shinmura	(Seikei University)	Taiji Suzuki	(Tokyo Institute of Technology)
Jinfang Wang	(Chiba University)	Toshiki Yamamoto	(University of Tsukuba)
Hirokazu Yanagihara	(Hiroshima University)	Kazuyoshi Yata	(University of Tsukuba)
